The north - lively and romantic

The area around Pollença, Alcúdia and Can Picafort is well-known for its extensive leisure facilities, perfect conditions for water sports, miles and miles of beaches, romantic villages and innumerable marinas. With the mountain as a backdrop, the large bays and the picture-book landscape around Cap Formentor make up an enchanting setting. Thanks to the excellent transport connections with Palma - just 45 minutes away - the north of Majorca has become a popular region for holiday-makers and residents from elsewhere.
